ABBR - E05	WW II military buildings	Matching Airfield, west of Anchor Lane	American built wartime airfield 1943-45. Cohesive collection of WWII air defence buildings associated with the Matching WWII airfield. The group of locally listed buildings comes in two parts. To the north is the sick quarters dispersed site associated with WW2 airfield – consists of 2 Nissen Huts of the sick quarters and one Nissen which was used as the orderly's quarters. To the south is the mess site. This is substantially complete and currently used for light industrial use. The site includes Nissen huts, Romney huts, brick buildings and a water tower. This is a well preserved and complete dispersed site, which is rare. Historic significance is amplified when the site is considered as a whole. Of significant historic value.	No	Fair/Poor	N/A	No	N/A
